Adoption of Local Alcohol Policy

Section 90 (1) Sale and Supply of Alcohol Act 2012

Waikato District Council advises that, following a decision of the Alcohol Regulatory and Licensing Authority on 29 September 2016 in respect of appeals received against Council's Provisional Local Alcohol Policy, the Provisional Local Alcohol Policy has now been adopted and therefore ceases to be provisional.

Council advises that at its meeting on 5 December 2016 it was resolved to bring the entire policy, with the exception of clauses 4.6, 5.6 and 6.6 relating to maximum trading hours, into force on 1 January 2017. Clauses 4.6, 5.6 and 6.6 will come into force on 1 April 2017.

The Local Alcohol Policy and the process followed in its adoption may be viewed on Council's website at <https://www.waikatodistrict.govt.nz/lap>. The policy may also be viewed at all Council offices and public libraries during ordinary opening hours.

If you would like further any information please check Council's website or contact Alan Parkes on 0800 492 452 or email Alan.Parkes@waidc.govt.nz

Consultation on proposed Easter Trading Policy

Waikato District Council is seeking feedback on the proposed Easter Trading Policy 2017.

This policy would allow for shops to open on Easter Sunday throughout the district.

For further information, copies of the statement of proposals, proposed bylaws and submission forms - visit www.waikatodistrict.govt.nz or any Council office or library.

Have your say by 17 February 2017

Tell us what you think about what we're proposing. Make a submission by:

- entering it online at www.waikatodistrict.govt.nz/sayit
- emailing it to consult@waidc.govt.nz
- posting it to Waikato District Council, 15 Galileo Street, Ngaruawahia 3720
- faxing it to (07) 824 8091
- delivering it to any Council office or library.

A hearing will be held on 15 March 2017 at the Council Chambers in Ngaruawahia at 9:15am if you wish to present your submission in person.
