FINANCE AND BUSINESS ANALYST 0.6 FTE

 Xtreme Zero Waste (XZW) of Whaingaroa (Raglan) operates a resource recovery, collections and on-site recycling and sales business under a community owned, not for profit model. Our aims are to move towards zero waste, create local employment and economic development and promote environmental stewardship. An opportunity has arisen for a newly developed finance role. The focus will be on oversight of all financial systems and processes plus high level analysis and forecasting for the business to support future growth. You will need to be highly skilled and up to date with finance management practice, hold a NZ recognised qualification in finance and have personal values that match our kaupapa. If you are excited about working with an awesome group of people in the not-for profit sector to support change, please forward cover letter and CV before 5pm 18th June 2017, to fiona@xtremezerowaste.org.nz For further information and a position description please contact Fiona McNabb, XZW Board Chairperson on 027 688 9754.

WANT TO VOLUNTEER?

Short term appeal
 Volunteer a couple of hours to help collect donations to fund the fight against Arthritis... a condition that affects over half a million New Zealanders. Various times and sites available.

Make someone smile
 Even if you only have time for a cuppa, you can add some sunshine to someone's day. Spend time with an elderly or socially isolated member of the community and see them smile.

Roll out the red carpet
 Help make our visitors and clients feel at home. If you can make a great cuppa, answer the phone, and keep an eye on the reception desk then we need you!

A win-win situation...
 Gain retail skills and access to training opportunities by helping out the fair trade cause. Cash handling, merchandising, pricing and frontline customer service are some of the duties required.

To find out more about these and other volunteering opportunities in the Raglan area, phone 07 839 3191 or visit:
